Overnight in De Luxe Double room. The Baur au Lac, almost 170 years still in the hands of the same owner family. Opened in 1844 by Johannes Baur, who came from the Vorarlberg area in Austria, it was built right beside the lake with a view of the Alps, using part of the old war harbour which had been filled in a short time before. The Baur au Lac, still more of a large villa, served at first as an elegant residence for guests travelling incognito. After constant enlargements, it had reached its present size by 1898. In 1854, only 10 years after the Baur au Lac had opened, the Leipzig Illustrated Newspaper already devoted a whole page to the famous hotel on Lake Zurich, with the headline "Zurich is made more beautiful". This article states: "Art must vie with nature, which displays, even lavishes, all of its charms here. The exterior of the hotel promises a great deal. But when one goes inside and walks through the luxurious salons and bedrooms, all of one's expectations are exceeded."

St MORITZ

Full day at leisure. St Moritz is located in the Engadine valley in Switzerland. It is a municipality in the district of Maloja in the Swiss canton of Graubünden. The highest summit in the Eastern Alps, the Piz Bernina, lies a few kilometers south of the town. St. Moritz hosted the Winter Olympics in 1928 and 1948. It is a popular destination of the upper class and international jet set, as well as one of the most expensive ski resorts in the world. The "dry, sparkling champagne climate" has become legendary and the famous sun of St. Moritz shines on an average of 322 days a year (it holds the Swiss record in this respect!). Thanks to its high altitude and guaranteed snow cover, St. Moritz's core competence is winter: in 1928 and 1948, the only Olympic Games to be held in Switzerland took place here, and the town has also hosted four Alpine World Ski Championships as well as all kinds of top annual events: spectacular races on the Cresta Run (since 1884) and Bob Run (since 1890), horse racing (since 1907), polo and cricket tournaments on the frozen Lake of St. Moritz and the Engadine Ski Marathon, ... Traditional ski mountains like Corviglia, Corvatsch and Diavolezza offer 350 km of slopes in a wonderful winter wonderland. Snow and Symphony, the music festival in spring snow, rounds off the winter season. Culture and nature are given top priority in the summer - in spite of the inline skating marathon, four golf courses and "Engadine Wind", a regatta for sailors and windsurfers held over several weeks. The Engadine is the "ballroom of the Alps" and towered over by the Piz Bernina, the only four-thousand meter peak of the Eastern Alps. Music is played at opera festivals, concert weeks, Golf & Symphony and daily spa concerts. The languages spoken in the valley are Romansh, German and Italian. Giovanni Segantini, the Giacometti family, Nietzsche, Hesse, Mann, Wagner, Toscanini, Strauss and von Karajan have all found inspiration here. St. Moritz is an "extravagance of cultural history" (J. C. Heer), which fascinates guests from all over the world.

LUGANO

Day at leisure to enjoy your shopping in Lugano. The old town is on Lake Lugano, which is bordered by promenades and parks. A funicular connects the old town with the train station above. Nearly everything in this article (with the exception of the mountain lifts) is within a five-minute walk of the base of the funicular. The town of Lugano fades into other, smaller waterfront communities all around the lake (much of which lies in Italy). Italian is the language of Lugano and its region (Ticino), which is surrounded on three sides by Italy. In this corner of Switzerland, a Strasse (street) becomes a Via, and a Platz (square) becomes a Piazza. The town center is easily walkable, and the two nearby hilltop excursions, San Salvatore and Monte Brè, start from funicular stations that are each a 20-minute lakeside stroll away from the center. Resorty Lugano hides some interesting history, but let's face it: You're here to relax. Consider taking this short stroll to get yourself oriented...or just grab a gelato and wind your own way through the city center's arcades and lakeside promenade. Start on Piazza Cioccaro, at the base of the funicular that connects the train station with the town center. Via Nassa: This is one of Lugano's main shopping streets. For the next several blocks, just enjoy the wandering, window-shopping, and people-watching along this gauntlet of boutiques and jewelry shops under typical Lombardi arcades. On the right, at #22, the Co-op department store has a good selection of chocolates (just inside the door on the left), a basement supermarket, and a handy top-floor cafeteria (lunch only, great views).

During the summer months, you'll have a personal travel companion in the first-class panorama carriage to Flüelen. From there, you'll take the historic paddle steamer, passing such historic landmarks as Tell's Chapel, Rütli meadow, and the Schiller memorial stone.
